

EVALUATION SUMMARY

Keerthana S has demonstrated exceptional growth and reliability as a Junior Content and Data Research Analyst during her three-month internship at Purple Hue Technosoft Pvt. Ltd. Achieving an overall rating of 4.0/5.0, she has proven herself to be a "High Potential Contributor," successfully delivering 93 meticulously crafted articles and 8 comprehensive research projects. Her ability to transition from a guided learner to a semi-independent content analyst—while mastering the integration of AI tools—highlights her strong adaptability and initiative.

Keerthana's professional conduct, reliability, and positive reception to feedback have been exemplary, earning her a perfect score in the Professionalism and Workflow Management category. While she possesses a solid foundation in content strategy and technical research, her next phase of professional growth will focus on deepening her data efficiency, maintainability, and strategic data security practices. Given her consistent performance, learning agility, and demonstrated ownership, leadership highly recommends her for a full-time opportunity, noting her clear potential to evolve into a key contributor to the organization's future initiatives.
